Before we begin

Let’s make something together.

Print on one side of US Letter paper at 100% or Actual Size. The test square should measure one inch on each side.

Gather plain paper, crayons, a ruler, a glue stick and tape. A grown-up helps with all scissors work. Read each activity’s extra supply notes before starting.

Permission: families and teachers may print copies for their own home or classroom. Please share this booklet only as permitted by the publisher.

FOLD

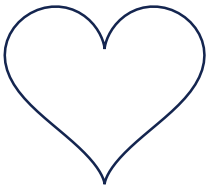

Keep drawn details inside each piece unless an activity says otherwise.

PROMISES WE CAN KEEP

A good coupon is an invitation. It is not a demand.
Ask: Would you enjoy this?
Choose a time that works for both of you. Anyone may say no or suggest another idea.
No coupon asks for a hug, a secret, money or a job you cannot safely do.

MAKE THE COVER

Color the cover. Ask a grown-up to cut it and the coupons. Stack them together and hold them with a paper band wrapped loosely around the stack. No staples needed.

GIVE YOUR INVITATION

You can say:
“I made these because I like spending time with you. Would you like to pick one?”
If they are busy, save the coupons for another day.
If an idea does not fit, make a new plan together.

AFTER YOUR SHARED MOMENT

What did you enjoy?
What surprised you?
What might you try another time?
Draw one little picture to remember it.

DRAW HERE

ANOTHER WAY TO PLAY

Try the activity in a different way. Choose one idea below, then draw or tell what happened.

1 OFFER A CHOICE
Show two coupons and ask which one sounds enjoyable. Either person may pass.

2 TELL WHAT YOU NOTICED
After using a coupon, each person names one small part they enjoyed.

3 MAKE A NEW INVITATION
Draw one shared activity that needs no purchase. Choose its time together.

Keep the making at your own pace.

MAKE IT YOUR OWN

Choose one idea from this booklet. Draw a change you would like to try. Tell a grown-up what you will keep the same and what you will change.
